DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the Chicago Times.

NEGRO "PROTECTION" AND WHITE LABOR.

The report of "Col. and Bvt. Maj. Gen." Nelson A. Miles, assistant commissioner of the freedmen's bureau in North Carolina, is a plea for the continuance of the bureau—but particularly for the continuance of "Col. and Bvt. Maj. Gen." Nelson A. Miles—to an indefinite period of time. "In my judgment," says this Col. and Bvt. Maj. Gen.:

"The withdrawal of the bureau created for the protection, guidance, and elevation of four millions of people from the degradation of slavery to the dignity of citizenship, is a matter of very grave importance, and I think never should be contemplated until the colored race is able to sustain itself in the position in which government has placed it; and I am confident that, if the colored people were consulted as to their wishes and hopes, their united prayer would be that its protection be given them a little while longer.

There can be no doubt that, if the wishes of the "colored people" were consulted, they would be found to be in favor of continuing as a permanent part of the federal machinery an institution which feeds them, clothes them, educates them, and gives them assurance of plenty to eat whether they work or play, and all this at the expense of white men who pay the taxes. And there can be no doubt that if the wishes of Col. and Bvt. Maj. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, and such as he is, were consulted, they would be found to favor, with remarkable unanimity, the perpetuation of an institution which affords them easy and profitable situations, far preferable to a military life on the borders of civilization, to which nearly all Cols. and Bvt. Maj. Gens. have a particular aversion.

But this assistant commissioner of freedmen is careful not to deal with facts. His business, as he seems to understand it, pertains only to the sentimental view of the subject. "Volumes," he says, "might be written in showing the causes why it should be continued." The leading topics on which the sentimental author would dilate in these volumes relate to the "feeling of sorrow among the colored people and their Union friends" which the discontinuance of the bureau would occasion; to the "great joy" which "their enemies," the white tax-payers, would express thereupon; to the "physical, moral and spiritual suffering" which would be occasioned to the sentimental Ethiopian upon finding that he must either work like a white man or starve like a white man; and so on. Doubtless all these sentimental bitter cups would be presented to the sable lips. This is a "sad, wicked world," as most white men have found, wherein men who desire to live in idleness and ease, and haven't a freedmen's bureau to help them, are painfully subject to disappointment.

The basis of this touching and tearful view of the Ethiopian situation seems to be that "The colored people scarcely own land "enough to stand upon." Owning no land they must work for men who do own it, or depend for subsistence on public charity. Land owners have the right to employ whom they please, and self-interest will certainly lead them to employ the labor which is found most profitable. The Ethiopian must take his chances in the labor market with the Saxon, the Celt, the Teuton, the Scandinavian, the Tartar, the Mongolian. If he does not "hoe his row," he must expect to be discharged, unless he can persuade Uncle Sam to continue the freedmen's bureau in order to keep him in a situation, or to seize the white man's estate and present him with "forty acres and two mules."

If there were no other objection to the freedmen's bureau, the fact that it is training the Ethiopian mind on the basis of false expectations is an objection that ought to cause its prompt discontinuance. All over the South it has been, directly or indirectly, the agency which has taught the negroes to anticipate, not only an easy and idle life, but a reward of shiftlessness in the "distribution of lands" that belong to white men. This revolutionary anticipation is almost universal among the negroes in Virginia and the Carolinas, and seems to be spreading all over the South. Gen. Gillem (a more intelligent and sensible commissioner than Gen. Miles) says, concerning this delusion among the negroes in Mississippi:

"There seems to be a wide-spread belief, which is daily increasing among the freedmen, that the land in this State is to be divided and distributed among them; and in some sections of the State this illusion is assuming a practical form, by the freedmen refusing to contract for the next year, or to leave the premises they have cultivated this year."

So long as the agency which is the real cause of this delusion exists, it will be useless to expect that the negroes will be made to comprehend the realities of the situation, and of their existing relations to the men whose slaves they but recently were. If, as the defenders of the bureau assume, it ought to be continued until the negro "is able to sustain himself in the position in which the government has placed him," then the time for its discontinuance will never arrive.

But a yet greater objection to its continuance, aside from the question of useless cost, is the fact that it is a system of discrimination by the national government in favor of the negro and against the interests of white labor. White mechanics and laborers in the North, who have no government bureau to support them when thrown out of employment, are made to pay and to suffer for the maintenance of a quasi-military establishment to support Southern negroes who refuse to work, and refuse to leave the premises that white men would not refuse to work, because they have been trained to believe that the government will distribute to every able bodied nigger forty acres and two mules! How much sympathy among northern workingmen do such black vagabonds deserve? How many Northern workingmen, already suffering under the depressing burden of over-taxation, will continue to support the white demagogues who advocate the continuance of government protection and support to such vagabondage? These are questions for white labor to consider.

The Chicago Evening Post is responsible for the following:

It is becoming customary to designate Thad. Stevens as a "great commoner," implying a comparison with Pitt in this respect. Pitt was, indeed, a "great Commoner;" and we presume nobody will dispute that Stevens is a great deal commoner than Pitt.

SALES OF REAL ESTATE, &c.

Valuable Property For Sale.

BY VIRTUE OF A DEED OF TRUST executed to me, by the late Wm. F. Collins, I will sell, on Monday, the 13th day of January, 1868, to the highest bidder, at the Court House door in Warrenton, the following valuable property:

The Tract of Land on which the late Wm. F. Collins resided, at the time of his death, situated in Warren County, on the Williamsboro' Road, two (2) miles from Ridgeway Depot, on the R. & G. R. R., and adjoining the lands of Jno. E. Jones, B. M. Collins and others, containing

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-TWO (172) ACRES.

On this Tract are situated the celebrated RIDGEWAY MILLS, which are not surpassed in the manufacture of Flour by any in the State. The Mills are in first-rate running order.

There are on the premises a Dwelling House, the necessary out-houses, barns, stables, &c., for conducting a farm. The land is under good fences and in a high state of cultivation, about one-half the tract being in original woods, convenient to the House and Mill.

There is also a fine young Orchard of Apple and Peach trees, well selected, and several young vines of the Scuppernong Grape.

Persons wishing to purchase would do well to examine the property before the sale.

Terms made known on day of sale.

Valuable Lands and Mills for Sale.

PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF THE COURT of Equity for Johnston County, at Fall Term, 1867, I shall, on Saturday, the 18th day of January next, on the premises, proceed to sell, at public sale, that valuable property, near Boon Hill, in said County, known as consisting of fifteen hundred and ninety-five acres of Land, lying near the North Carolina Railroad, and within one and a half miles of Boon Hill Depot.

The said lands are the first quality of Cotton lands. About 800 acres are cleared, and have been in cultivation. The rest is in primitive forest, and is well timbered, although a considerable quantity of Pine Timber has been cut off.

The improvements consist of an excellent Saw Mill, with a forty-two inch circular Saw, run by a Jonvals Turbine Wheel, which, for beauty of work and quickness of cutting, is unsurpassed. There is also a tram road from the Mill to the Railroad, where there is a turnout. Also a Grist Mill, which will grind 60 bushels of corn per day. Also a Store and Office, a Blacksmith Shop, and four houses for operatives, and beautifully situated on a hill, containing eight rooms, to which are attached all necessary out-houses and Stables, with two Gardens, one of which contains one of the largest and finest Scuppernong Arbors in the State.

MONDAY, JANUARY 6, 1868

State Conservative Convention!

It is resolved by the State Executive Committee of the Constitutional Union Party of North Carolina, that a State Convention of the party be held in the City of Raleigh, on THURSDAY, the 5th day of February, A. D. 1868, at 11 o'clock of that day.

It is confidently hoped that the friends of a Constitutional Union and civil liberty will be active in the effort to make the Convention the largest and most respectable that ever assembled in the State.

Let the Conservative people in every County of the State, where meetings have not been held, hold meetings at once, pass appropriate resolutions, appoint delegates and see that they attend the Convention.—The condition of public affairs demands the patriotic effort and co-operation of every good citizen, to save the country from impending danger.

By order of the State Executive Committee.

R. C. BADGER, Secretary.

January 4th, A. D. 1868.

WHITHER IT TENDS.

The mongrel Conventions in several of the Southern States, under the guidance of depraved white men at home, but, more particularly, of Radical emissaries from the North, agents of the Bureau, &c., have already provided, as part of the fundamental law, that, in all places of public amusement, in all hotels, schools, railway cars and churches, the negroes shall be received on an equal footing with the whites. Thus, whether he will or not, the white man is to be made to share the taverns, the steamboats, the places of worship, the colleges, &c., which he built and owns, with the people of a degraded and inferior race.

The odium of this state of things attaches not so much to the Conventions themselves. Composed of such material as they are, it was not to be expected that they would adopt a different policy. Having placed themselves on an equality with the negro,—nay, having gone down on their knees to the negro, to supplicate his vote and beg his favor,—these men owed it to their sable ally to grant him every privilege, social, educational, and moral, which they themselves could possibly claim. But the root of the whole evil is to found in the nature and inherent principles of Radicalism itself. Negro enfranchisement being its cardinal doctrine, negro equality in all respects—which, in the case of nearly all the States of the South, means negro supremacy,—is the necessary consequence. If negroes are to sit Conventions and Legislatures, occupy municipal offices, sit upon the bench and go to Congress, they must have admission to West Point and the Naval Academy, must be allowed front seats at the theatre, a plate at the table d' Hote, a state-room in the cars, and even a seat at Presidential and Gubernatorial dinners of State. Where two distinct races inhabit the same region, both cannot exercise equal political power in all respects, unless there be amalgamation or thorough equality between them.

This is what is threatened as the result of the Radical doctrine of unqualified negro-suffrage, and it remains to be seen whether the people of the North, in whose hands the solution of this issue really rests, will consent to it. We have no fears as to the result, ultimately, whatever may be the intermediate humiliations and suffering. Those are not the only effects menaced, and the public alarm is being rapidly aroused to the fact, already so painfully demonstrated in the very incipiency of the experiment of black suffrage, that negro equality will work the the material and economical ruin and prostration of the South, and, by consequence, of the whole country, in the end. This is what has caused the great reaction at the North,—a reaction which will continue, until all the mischief, moral and physical, which Radicalism has wrought, is effectually undone. The Anglo-Saxon spirit is up, and, as in the history of the past, everything inferior must succumb before it.

THE RICHMOND Whig calls attention to the absence of tales of rebel atrocities in the Northern papers, and says very pertinently: "The very newspapers that then spent thousands and tens of thousands of dollars for rebel outrages, are now filled day after day with negro outrages. The tables are turned. The truth has prevailed at last, and the mischief-makers are endeavoring to atone for their villainy by firing the Northern heart against, not the whites, but the blacks and their incendiary leaders. God only knows how deeply we were injured by those heartless creatures, and whether those injuries can be repaired."

LECTURE.—We understand that Rev. A. J. Ryan, the author of "The Conquered Banner" and many other admirable poems of the war, will deliver a lecture in this city in aid of a charitable society, some time during the current month.—Richmond Examiner.

We suggest to the Young Men's Christian Association that it would be a good idea to invite Father Ryan to deliver a lecture in this city, in behalf of the poor.

STAVE GETTING.—We beg to call attention to the letter of our friends, Messrs. J. B. Hunter & Co., of Portsmouth, Va., Commission Merchants, who are well advised of all matters relating to the stave business.—We have no doubt of its profitableness.—Messrs. J. B. Hunter & Co. can give any information desired about the matter.

IMPORTANT ORDER BY GEN. CANBY.

We publish, to-day, in full, the recent important order of Gen. Canby, modifying the previous orders of Gen. Sickles in some respects, and also changing some of the acts of the Legislature of this State. We cannot doubt that, in issuing this order, Gen. Canby's purpose is to mitigate, to some extent, the condition of our people, who are being harrassed by creditors, on account of old debts, &c.

The order should be studied closely to be understood, and, being the law, till amended or rescinded, must be obeyed.

The frequent changes or modifications of the laws, by which we are to be governed, so long as we are under military rule, most imperiously call for the restoration of some stable civil government, which, by its wisdom and prudence, will challenge the confidence, the approval and the warm support of the people. While there are comparatively but few instances of disorder and violence among the white people of the State, yet the general loss of confidence and uneasiness in matters of debt present a state of demoralization and wide spread disposition to litigation, unknown before in this country.

How easily might this state of things have been avoided, if, at an early stage after the war closed, every debtor and creditor in the State, in the exercise of a feeling of common interest and common humanity, had united together to compromise their debts! This we have urged upon all as the most easy and cheap method of settling up.

THE STAVE BUSINESS.

PORTSMOUTH, VA., Jan. 2nd., 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We have read with interest your remarks, in late numbers of the Sentinel, in relation to the stave business.

We know of no business, at the present time, that will pay better than getting staves, especially where the timber is near the Railroad or water navigation, and the business is conducted by an experienced overseer. But it will not pay to employ green hands to make them.

The timber in your section of the State is equal to any in the world for this purpose. We have sold staves that were shipped from points on the R. & G. R. R. and N. C. R. R., and the grain of the timber has been pronounced the best that ever came to our market.

Transportation is quite reasonable for them. 4,000 staves is a car load, and should be packed, and not thrown in loosely. The freight on a car load, from Salisbury, or any point between Salisbury and Raleigh, to this market, is $62,50. From Raleigh, or any point between Raleigh and Weldon, $32. They are sold here, upon arrival, at the following rates: White oak pipe $90; White oak hhd. and heading, $55,00; Red oak hhd. $47,00. It will not pay to make barrel staves. 1200 staves make a thousand, and, as they are sold by this count, they should be paid for making and transportation in the same way. The expense here (not including commissions) is about $3 per car load. This is for inspection and unloading.

We will send, gratis, to parties who wish to commence the business, samples of each kind. The following are the sizes they should be made:

White oak barrel staves, not less than 32 inches long, 3 and 3½ inches wide, ⅞ inch thick on thin side.

White oak hogshead staves, not less than 42 inches long, 3 and 3½ inches wide, and ⅞ inch thick on thin side.

White oak heading, 28, 30, and 32 inches long, 5 inches wide, and ⅞ inch thick on thin side.

White oak pipe staves, 54 inches long, 3 and 3½ inches wide, and ⅞ inch thick on thin side.

Red oak hogshead staves, 42 inches long, 3 and 3½ inches wide, and ⅞ inch thick on thin side.

All white oak staves to be clear of sap: red oak staves may have sap.

It is recommended to saw them two inches longer, and to get them a little wider, and at least one inch thick; so got they will command better prices.

CHAPEL HILL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

CHAPEL HILL, Jan. 3, '68.

Messrs. Editors:—The First Annual Festival of the Chapel Hill Agricultural Society was held in this village on the 28th. ult. The attendance was large and a deep interest we thought manifested in the subject. Hon. W. H. Battle delivered the regular annual address before the Society. Of the character of this production it is but necessary to say that the expectation of the public was raised very high, and their anticipations fully realized.

The Committee on Grasses made a pretty lengthy report,—deviating in some respects from the regularly received opinions. One of the great objects to be aimed at in these Societies is, we think, to elicit original thoughts and new and improved methods of Agriculture in the place of the old routine system.

The celebrated Briady Plow, both steel and cast, ordered from Louisville, Ky., was tried before the Society, and a large assemblage of farmers from the surrounding country. Altogether, we think a very favorable impulse was given to the important subject of Agriculture. Can the press aid us in this important enterprise?

Prof. C. Phillips, by invitation, will deliver an address before the Society, on the first Saturday in February. C.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—My interest as a citizen, my relation to society, and my desire to see credit given where it is due, induce me to constitute myself a trespasser upon your columns, for the purpose of correcting a palpable mistake in the article by Hon. S. R. Mallory, that appeared in your valuable paper on the 25th ult.

In alluding to the arrival, hospitable entertainment, &c., of President Davis and party, at Lexington, N. C., he says: "Mr. Davis, and a portion of his Cabinet, stopping at the house of Mr. Barringer, where they were most cordially and hospitably received, and where Mrs. Barringer, a cultivated and refined lady, evinced all the warmth and kindness of a true daughter of the South."

No persons of that name lived at that place, but President Davis and party did stop at the house of Hon. James M. Leach. What he says of Mrs. Barringer appropriately applies to Mrs. Leach. She is, indeed, one of Carolina's most accomplished daughters, kind, gentle and hospitable.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases provided in paragraph II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 20th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minors, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorder in or about the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year, except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.

NOTHING OF GOOD TO BE EXPECTED FROM CONGRESS.

The Springfield Republican is predicting that Congress will send back the constitutions of some of the Southern States for amendment, on account of the proscriptive provisions which they contain. That of Alabama, for example, prohibits any man from voting who will not take an oath never to oppose negro suffrage. Such a provision as this is a simple outrage upon every principle of justice, and is as unwise as it is unjust. It will disfranchise a very large portion of the whites—Union men as well as rebels—and was probably intended to have that effect.

But we think the Republican is over sanguine in expecting any of these foolish and unjust acts to be corrected by Congress.—The power of revising these constitutions is reserved, it is true, but it is not likely to be exercised upon any very broad or liberal view of the public welfare. Congress reserved that right because it feared the constitutions would not be Radical enough; it is not likely to object to any of them, that they are too Radical or too proscriptive.

There is another fact which is perfectly clear, and which indicates the action Congress is likely to take. The Radicals in the Republican party intend that these Southern States shall be readmitted to the Union in time to be represented in the Republican National Convention, and in the next Presidential election, provided the suffrage laws they adopt are such as give assurance that their votes will be "on the right side."—Though the agency of the Congressional Committee, the operations of the Freedmen's Bureau and the secret machinery of the Loyal Leagues, it is believed the votes of every one of them can be secured for Judge Chase; and when this is made reasonably certain they will be admitted to the Union, whatever in other respects may be the character of the constitutions they adopt. The grand aim and object of those who have controlled the action of the Republican party since the war was closed has been to secure to themselves the next Presidency. There has scarcely been any concealment of this purpose; indeed, it has been avowed as the sufficient reason for the reconstruction policy that has been adopted. And it is not likely to be abandoned or modified in the slightest degree, now that the time for its consummation is so near at hand.

It the sole object of the Republican majority in Congress was to restore peace and prosperity to the Southern States and the country, they would find a splendid opportunity of contributing to that end in a wise exercise of the power of revision which they have reserved. The new constitutions of most of the Southern States are likely to be framed in the interest of special classes, and in an illiberal and proscriptive spirit. Congress ought to check this temper, and overrule all such endeavors. But, we confess, we see no symptoms of a disposition on the part of Congress to act in this direction.

THE OHIO DEMOCRACY.—The Democracy of Franklin county, Ohio, met in convention on the 26th ult., and appointed delegates to the State Convention, to be held in Columbus on the 8th inst. All of the delegates are in favor of Judge Thurman for United States Senator. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That George H. Pendleton is the unanimous choice of this Convention for President, and that we hereby instruct our delegates to the State Convention, meeting on the 8th of January next, in the selection of delegates to the National Convention, and otherwise to promote and secure the wishes of the Democracy of Franklin county in this behalf.

Judge Thurman, upon invitation, addressed the Convention. He said that the campaign of 1868 had now fairly opened, and all true Democrats should work for measures and not men. He denounced the military rule now existing in the Southern States, saying if such rule were continued much longer these States in the best portion of our country would be as bad as Hayti or Jamaica.

He further stated that he had given the matter considerable attention, and he was fully satisfied that the Democracy of Ohio are a unit in favor of the nomination of George H. Pendleton for the Presidency.

HOW THE SOLDIERS FEEL.—The Union, published at Madrid, Maine, gives the following extract from a letter written by one of the soldiers in the Sixth Maine regiment. It indicates very distinctly the immense change which is going on in public opinion in regard to the Radicals. This soldier veteran says:

"I have been a Republican five years. I fought the South in arms three long years; I marched over desolated fields and grounds deluged with blood. I thought, as scores of others did, that I was fighting for our old flag and the Constitution, but I got greatly mistaken. I found out before the close of the war that I was fighting to keep an army of plunderers in power. I think they have been kept in power a little too long for the country's good. It is time they were relieved. I think there are honest men enough to rule this nation. The Republicans have made a fair trial, and they have proved incompetent. We ask them now to stand back, just stand back, and give place to a better class of men. This they must do, no matter how much they dislike the idea. I, for one, never will consent to be ruled by a negro. The Republicans must remember that there are in the loyal States one million of soldiers who will not be ruled by negroes, or consent to see any portion of our own white race thus degraded! No, never!"

A negro delegate offered a resolution in the Georgia Convention to the effect that "no man or woman, of either race, be allowed to intermarry, unless he and she, the contracting party, wants to."

The Chinamen at Helena, Montana Territory, recently took a vote by ballot to determine who should be punished for setting fire to a house.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
OF HARTFORD.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,
MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT FOR THE STATE OF
NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH OF ALL.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and LESS than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured, and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

ABOVE LIABILITIES.

Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. R. TUCKER & Co.

MONDAY, JANUARY 6, 1868.

APPROACHING STATE CONVENTION.

The State Convention, to frame a Constitution for the old State of North Carolina, has been called by Gen. Canby to meet on the 14th. of the present month. We design to report the proceedings of that body as fully and as fairly as possible. The public will be interested in its proceedings, and it will add considerably to our expenses to report them. The presumption is that it will be in session a full month. The Daily Sentinel will be sent to any person who may desire it only during the session, for $1, cash in advance.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Seaboard Inland Air Line, via Portsmouth, Va., (E. G. Ghio, Supt. of Transportation S. & R. R. R. and W. C. Smith, Supt. Bay Line Steamers): Important Notice to Shippers of Spirits of Turpentine, &c. This line offers every advantage to commend it to patronage.

Douglas Bell, Grocer and Commission Merchant, announces his removal from Market Square to the old stand of B. P. Williamson & Co., where he has a large and carefully selected stock of Family Groceries.

Young's Boarding House, near the Yarborough: An excellent private boarding establishment, where the best accommodations can be secured.

THEFTS.—We hear that several thefts have been committed in this City, within the past few days. Our police are advised to be on the alert. The particulars need not be mentioned, yet.

THESPIANS.—As heretofore announced, the Dramatic Corps will give an unusually interesting representation, this evening, at Tucker Hall. Independently of their own performances, the comic pantomine, by the Deaf Mutes, will prove highly entertaining.

REV. T. H. PRITCHARD.—At a meeting of the congregation of the Baptist Church, on Friday evening last, Rev. T. H. Pritchard, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Petersburg, was invited to the pastorate of the Church in this City. We learn, also, that Mr. P. has been called to the Church in Wilmington. Whether he will accept either, and, if so, which, is not known. His former acceptableness as a Minister, in this City, leads to the earnest hope that he will yield to the wishes of his Raleigh friends and admirers.

THE CASH SYSTEM.—We hear of a number of our merchants and other dealers, who have resolved, with the commencement of the New Year, to inaugurate the cash system in their transactions. Some of them have already announced such a purpose through our columns. The scarcity of money, the general stringency of the times, and the consequent difficulty of making collections, have compelled them to this course.

Under ordinary circumstances, a proper system of credits is not only advantageous both to buyer and seller, but it is, in some sort, indispensable. But, situated as the people are at present, we cannot question that the cash plan is best for all concerned. It is necessary for the security of the seller, and it will operate as a wholesome check upon buyers. Men, who buy on credits, will purchase more than they actually require; and it will be well for us all to learn the economic lesson that, now-a-days, what cannot be paid for can and ought to be dispensed with.

A SERIOUS COMPLAINT.—A lady correspondent in Fayetteville calls our attention to an evil, which we feel bound to notice, in order that it may reach the eyes of those entrusted with the correction of mail delinquencies. She says:

"On the route, somewhere between Raleigh and Davidson College, there is a Post-Office, which seems to make a practice of seizing every letter which is suspected of containing any enclosure,—be it money or a pair of gloves. Since last July, as many as four letters, passing between our family and a sister now residing near Davidson College, have been abstracted. Some time in the Fall, there was a change made in the manner of transporting the letters from Charlotte to Davidson, and, supposing that all was right, we mailed a letter here on the 16th. of December, which ought to have reached its destination in three days. As it contained an enclosure, it is more than provoking."

In this connection, we notice that the Land We Love, at Charlotte, makes frequent complaint of similar letter thefts at various points. So far as our own experience is concerned, we do not know that we have suffered to any great extent; but, certainly, cases like the foregoing demand the earnest attention of the postal authorities.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2., 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—After several years absence, embracing the war, I find myself again in this extensive, busy and usually agreeable city. But I confess to strange isolation, not because wanting unnumbered landmarks of interest, but that the landmarks are too numerous; for when here long ago, as said, these well remembered points of interest became such from other associations not now renewed or renewable. The beautiful spirit, both in form and nature, who then and thus rendered all these localities vital with interest, as you know sleeps solitary also amid strange graves in your own State, a martyr in truth, like numberless others of the war. She made these objects all through this Northern land to be hallowed to me, and they shall remain so, for in such faithful remembrance is my pride and glory. So, though moving amidst these populous streets, and mingling with vast assemblages otherwise, I can afford to be alone when living in the two worlds—the past and present.

Being nearest Grace Church, Sunday, I worshipped there. Some, perhaps, would not call it worship. But I can worship anywhere; and whether on the land or sea, in the valley or on mountain tops, my heart and eyes always testify to emotion. Yet I must own, that after hearing the opera in Boston, a couple of evenings previous, and Max Maretzek's leadership of the German Drama of Goethe, Saturday night, it was a little like continuing the performance on the Sabbath, with admission free.

But in singing the 82nd. selection of Psalms, the voices found the chords of many hearts doubtless, and reminded of the days of David, the sweet singer of Israel. Only this difference, however,—the voice that did the work was woman's; and I believe universal consent would say, the strains of the softer, kindlier sex, penetrate deeper, and vibrate more fully than if reversed. I know it is so with me, so much that only two things are recollected by me as belonging to earliest years, the eye and song of my mother. She was a good singer, and while stamping her image on my delicate nature by the look of devotion, her daily musical notes harmonized the child's spirit with hers, and, may it not be hoped—with heaven's?

There is, therefore, something good to be found every where, even in Grace Church, with all its modern improvements.

Snow has latterly covered the ground from Baltimore to the North pole perhaps, as it certainly did in my trip from the Chesapeake, to Boston. Yet it seemed too warm for snow—and while every body was clothed in thickest manner, I was warm in my usual Southern garb, and to-day the thermometer stands say at 40; (in the Hotel heated as usual by hot air 72.)

We hear no politics, and in speaking of such to two persons only—one from Rhode Island, the other the President of a New York Rail Road—and another, now remembered, from New Hampshire, the boast was of Southern heroism and highest admiration for your people. Here, I believe, the subject of politics is never named. It is a town where every body is let alone. Perhaps you might get a man to hear a word of the sort, but it would be but one; the bare mention of purpose to talk with him about this sending him off with probably no complimentary words or feeling for you. Time is too much valued, furnishing so many other more agreeable amusements.

Yet taking my quondam acquaintance at Boston (the gentleman from Rhode Island I mean) as a guide, when the great West, assisted by the South, gets ready for repudiation, New York will wish to add a word, for Wall Street hoards these bonds, and cannot afford to give them up. But this time is not yet. There is a good deal of acting to do before this drama or tragedy appears, if ever.

Another thing not heard here, is, who else has taken the Bankrupt privilege? Every body seems to have money, North, and Mason's and Dixon's line, (or a little lower down now) becomes a sad contrast in this respect. South of it, it is grief and desolation; North, the reverse. It does not seem to be the same country. And is it?

But all things have end, they say; and as the actor in the beautiful opera of the Rose of Castile exclaimed:

> Hope! never, never, give away to despair:
> Point onward—and onward, the beacon of all,
> The heart shall also thy destiny share—
> In trusting—and trusting, then, in good to befall.

And so say I,—and may it ring in all ears South, never to give up, hoping, expecting a better day.

PAULLIN.

A "JAP" INSULTED BY A NEGRO—HE KNOCKS HIM DOWN.—The "Japs" have attracted considerable crowds of negroes daily about Spottswood, where they are stopping. Yesterday morning, as some of these copper-skinned individuals were about to take a walk, a crowd of course followed them, making remarks upon their appearance, etc. One darky remarked, in a voice above all the rest, "Yah! ha! dey ain't nothin'but niggers." One of them turned furiously upon him, and, with the exclamation, "Oo lie; wee no nigga," knocked him down with his stick, much to the amusement of the crowd, which seemed willing to tolerate from Mr. "Jap" that which, coming from a Virginian, would have excited their most violent ire.—Rich. Dispatch.

THE GOVERNORSHIP OF VIRGINIA.—We learn that the matter as to whether Governor Pierpoint shall hold over until a State government is organized is under discussion at military headquarters. The fact that the Constitution of the State fixes the term of service of the Governor, and the uncertainty as to when a State government, under the action of the convention, will be organized, renders it probable that Pierpoint will be removed and a Governor appointed by the military.—Rich. Examiner, 3rd.

A QUESTION OF TASTE.—The New York Tribune pronounces Mayor Hoffman "regardless of gentlemanly instincts," because in his speech at the New England dinner he alluded to the fact that New England troops and officers brought home pianos from the South which they did not purchase. The Buffalo Courier asks how about the "gentlemanly instincts" of the officers who appropriated the pianos?

THE BANKRUPT LAW.—The Bankrupt law has now been a year in operation, and yet there has been very little done under it. The principal reason of this is that, according to one clause in the bill, after the first year no bankrupt can get the benefit of it unless his assets amount to fifty per cent of his debts. After another year the law will be inoperative, unless this clause is repealed, and Congress should attend to it without delay.—N. Y. Herald.

SENATOR DOOLITTLE.—It is announced that Senator Doolittle has prepared an elaborate speech opposing the congressional reconstruction policy, which, it is said, will embrace prognostications of the Conservatives in the next presidential campaign. In other words, it is expected that he will speak ex cathedra for the President.—World.

Monday Morning Dispatches.

GEN. HOWARD ON SOUTHERN DESTITUTION—BUREAU OFFICERS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4, P. M.

Gen. Howard's report to Gen. Grant, concerning the letters from the South, don't credit the widespread destitution represented. It says that last year Southern gentlemen estimated that it would take two millions to meet the wants, whereas a half million met the necessities. He thinks that this year's distress will not prove so stringent as represented by Gov's. Orr, Humphreys and others, but before Spring there will doubtless be suffering in South Carolina, Mississippi, Louisiana and small portions of other States. He urges the President and Congress to inaugurate a system of relief, which will not pauperize the people.

The Committee on Foreign Affairs will introduce a resolution early next week, calling on the Government to release Father McMahan, imprisoned in Canada, charged with Fenianism.

Strong efforts are making by the leading New York Democrats to induce ex-Gov. Seymour to withdraw his declension of the Presidential candidacy.

Howard, with Grant's approval, has directed Sub-Commissioners to relieve absolute distress, and has directed purchases of corn for distribution in the most needy sections.

No Bureau agents will be retained South, except upon representations of Sub-Commissioners, that their services are imperatively needed.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION—MELEE AMONG NEWSPAPER MEN.

RICHMOND, Jan. 4, P. M.

In the Convention the following resolutions of enquiry were referred:

Limiting the time of hired labor to eight hours; scaling all debts incurred previous to April, 1865, at twenty-five cents in the dollar; levying no poll tax; requiring foreigners to reside in the State 10 years before voting; legalizing the birth of children born of parents in slavery, so that they may inherit property; admitting colored persons to Colleges; selling the military Institute and devoting the proceeds to the Educational fund

The newspapers are severely denounced for misrepresentations of the members and speeches of the Convention.

The city has been quite lively with newspaper fights to-day. One occurring between a reporter of the Examiner and the correspondent of the N. Y. Herald, and one between a reporter of the Dispatch and the official reporter of the Convention, in which a member of the Convention and another reporter joined. No serious damage was done. All the parties were arrested.

Maj. Poe, chief of police, was before the Military Commissioner to-day, charged by Hunnicutt with giving information which was untrue to a correspondent of a New York paper, relative to the alleged incendiary speech of that individual.

GOV. BULLOCK'S MESSAGE—A GOOD SIGN!

BOSTON, Jan. 4.

Gov. Bullock's message says:

"Let us, then, hear no more of confiscation and attainder. Let us make an end of illiberal and unfriendly legislation; and, while compromising no principle for which we have contended, let us restore those lately in rebellion to equality of rights as speedily as is consistent with the national safety."

He eulogizes Grant and presses him for the Presidency.

Life Insurance continues to occupy the most serious consideration of the heads of families, who, by the casualties of war, short crops and short price of Cotton, have been deprived of the support they relied upon, in case of death, for their dependents; and the question with them is, "Which is the OLDEST, SAFEST, LARGEST, MOST ECONOMICAL and RELIABLE COMPANY represented in North Carolina?" I unhesitatingly assure them that I have indisputable evidence that the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE Co. is, without doubt, prepared to prove, from the most trustworthy and authentic official reports, that she has a larger amount of assets than all other Companies in this State combined; that for eighteen years she has declared an average of fifty per cent dividend; for thirteen years her interest on investment has exceeded her losses; and her vast business is conducted at a much less expense.

All she makes is shared by the assured. No Stockholder receives the lion's share of the profits, and no Company pays its losses more promptly. Last year (1866) she paid to widows and orphans upwards of a Million of Dollars. Therefore, apply at once to P. F. PESCUD, Agt.,

Incidents and Sketches of Life in the Confederacy.

Comprising Narratives of Personal Adventure, Army Life, Naval Adventure, Home Life, Partisan Daring, Life in the Camp, Field and Hospital, Together with the Songs, Ballads, Anecdotes, and Humorous Incidents of the War for Southern Independence.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embellished in romance or poetry, which is a real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos of the war. This illustrates the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service.

The Valiant and Brave Hearted, the Picturesque and Dramatic, the Witty and Marvelous, the Tender and Pathetic, and the whole Panorama of the War are here thrillingly portrayed in a masterly manner, at once historical and romantic, rendering it the most ample, unique, brilliant and readable book that the war has called forth.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skillfully interwoven in this work of literary art.

Send for Circulars and see our terms, and full discription of the work.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication, with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano, Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

Terms MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can, as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

DAILY SENTINEL.

MONDAY, JANUARY 6, 1868

CASTLE AND COTTAGE.

There stands a castle by the sea
With an ancient keep and turrets three,
And in it dwells a lady rare,
Rich and lovely with golden hair,
By the wild waves plashing wearily.

In it dwells a baron bold,
Gallant and young, with store of gold,
Store of all that men can crave
To cheer his pathway to the grave,
By the wild waves plashing wearily.

The lady bright is kind and good,
The paragon of womanhood;
And her wedded lord is leal and sure,
Beloved alike of rich and poor,
By the wild waves plashing wearily.

There dwells a fisher on the strand,
In a little cot with a roof of land,
With his bonny wife, and girls and boys,
That climb to his knee with a pleasant noise,
By the wild waves plashing cheerily.

And the lady of the castle sighs
When she meets the fisherwife's gladdening eyes,
And wishes that Heaven, to bless her life,
Had made her mother as well as wife,
By the wild waves plashing cheerily.

The lord of the castle, riding home
O'er the hard sea-sand where the breakers foam,
Oft sees the fisher, his labor done,
Sit with his wife in the glint o' the sun,
By the wild waves plashing cheerily.

Sit with his wife, and his boys and girls,
Dandling the youngest with golden curls,
And turns his envious eyes aside
And well nigh weeps, for all his pride,
By the wild waves plashing wearily.

"I'd give," quoth he, "my rank and state,
My wealth, that poor men call so great,
Could but I have that fisherman's joys,
His happy home and his girls and his boys,
By the wild waves plashing cheerily."

[All the Year Round

THE DEAD OF 1867.

The close of another year reminds us that our country has been called upon to regret the loss by death of many eminent citizens. The Boston Journal give a long list of the dead. We note the following:

Ex-Governor Andrew, of Massachusetts; ex-Governor Hunt, of New York; Hon. George Evans, of Maine, ex-Governor Joseph A. Gilmore, Rev David Dudley Field, Rear Admiral Ringgold, Commodore Paulding, Mr. Wright, United States Minister to Berlin; Hon. Albert Smith, of Maine; Chief Justice Wayne, of the United States Supreme Court; General Thomas F. Meagher, ex-Governor J. A. King, of New York; ex-President Day, of Yale College; Senator McDougall, Professor Charles King, Elias Howe, the inventor of the sewing machine; ex-Chancellor Walworth, of New York; Real Admiral Sloat, General Griffin, Admiral Palmer and Professor Chester Dewey.

The literary world has been called to mourn the departure of those whose names in this country were esteemed by thousands. N. P. Willis, who died at Idlewild; Byron Forceythe Wilson died ere he had reached the maturity of his poetic powers, though he left many sweet songs; Thomas Bulfinch, the author of the Age of Chivalry, etc., Fitz Green Halleck, the poet, and Catherine Maria Sedgwick.

Among the artists and those known by their talents we may recall Jacques Burkhardt, the life-long friend of Professor Agassiz, W. H. Furness, the artist, Sallie St. Clair, the actress, Pual Jullien, W. F. Brough, Ira Aldridge, Nantier Didiee and Avonia Jones.

Among the writers and journalists who have gone are James F. Otis, of the New York and New Orleans press; Charles F. Browne, ("Artemus Ward,") the writer and lecturer, and George Wilkins Kendall of the New Orleans Picayune.

The scientific world has been called upon to part with several of its most brilliant men, whose fattainments made them the benefactors of the whole human race, in their various departments,—Professor A. D. Bache, superintendent of the United States coast survey, Professor Faraday of England, the eminent chemist, and Earl Ross, the astronomer.

FASHIONABLE DINNER PARTY IN ABYSSINIA.

A great degree of skepticism has been entertained in regard to the mode of supplying brinde or raw meat to the guests to the fashionable parties at Gonder, the capital of Abyssinia. When the company have taken their seats at table, a cow or bull is brought to the door, and his feet strongly tied; after which the cooks proceed to select the most delicate morsels. Before killing the animal, all the flesh on the buttocks is cut off in solid square pieces, without bones or much effusion of blood. Two or three servants are then employed, who, as fast as they can procure brinde, lay it upon cakes of teff placed like dishes down the table, without cloth or anything else beneath them. By this time all the guests have knives in their hands, and the men prefer the large crooked ones, which in the time of war they puts to all sorts of uses. The company are so arranged that one gentleman sits between two ladies; and the former, with his long knife, begins by cutting a thin piece, which would be thought a good steak in England, while the motion of the fibres is yet perfectly distinct.

In Abyssinia no man of any fashion feed's himself, or touches his own meat. The women take the flesh and cut it lengthwise like strings, about the thickness of one's little finger, then crosswise into square pieces somewhat smaller than dice. This they lay upon a portion of the teff bread, strongly powdered with black pepper, or cayenne and tosil salt, and then wrap it up like a cartridge. In the meantime, the gentleman has put up his knife, with each hand resting upon his neighbor's knee, his body stooping, his head low and forward and mouth open very much like an idiot, turns to the one whose cartridge is first ready, who stuffs the whole of it between his jaws at the immense risk of choking him. This is a mark of grandeur. The greater the man would seem to be, the larger is the piece which he takes into his mouth; the more noise he makes in chewing it, the more polite does he prove himself. None but beggars and thieves, say they, eat small pieces and in silence. Having despatched his morsels, which he does very expeditiously, his neighbor on the other hand holds forth a second pellet, which he devours in the same way, and so on till he is satisfied.

He never drinks till he has finished eating; and before he begins, in gratitude to the fair ones who have fed him, he makes up two small rolls of the same kind and form, each of the ladies opens her mouth at once, while with his own hand he supplies a portion to both at the same moment. Then commence the potations, which, we are assured, are not regulated with much regard to sobriety or decorum. All this time the unfortunate victim at the door is bleeding, but bleeding little; for so skillful are the butchers, that while they strip the bones of the flesh, they avoid the parts which are traversed by the great arteries. At last they fall upon the thighs likewise; and soon after, the animal perishes from loss of blood.—London paper.

LIFE INSURANCE.

(From the Insurance Monitor and Wall Street Review, New York.)

A Well-deserved Success—The Equitable Life Insurance Company.

The approaching demolition of seven buildings, consisting of that almost immemorial landmark, "Old Guerrin's," the less ancient "Standinger's," and the present office-building of the American Express Company, on the Southeast corner of Broadway and Cedar street, together with three adjoining buildings on the latter street, is attributable to that modern insurance giant, the Equitable Life. These seven buildings are all to be replaced by one, six stories in height, including basement, and having a frontage of 86 feet 9 inches on Broadway, and one hundred and thirty-seven feet four inches on Cedar street. A number of the first architects in the country are engaged in perfecting plans for the structure, so as to make it in style, accommodation, and convenience, superior to any other building of the kind yet erected.

The building will, however, not only be made to accommodate the Company, but so arranged that the rental of such part as is not occupied by them will return an interest on the investment.—The magnitude and surpassing growth of the Equitable Life not only justify this solid investment, but render it both expedient and necessary. Although this Company has been only eight years in business, its policies issued during its eighth year covered an insurance amounting to over thirty-five millions of dollars. The total sum assured by it up to the present date approaches 100,000,000; its accumulations have run up to 5,000,000; its annual income to three millions, and will in the ensuing year doubtless expand to five million dollars.

For this rapid increase and substantial success there are abundant and most satisfactory reasons. They are found in the numerous solid advantages the Company affords. In the fact that it is purely mutual, and that all its profits go to the insured on the first of February, every year, at which time a large dividend has been regularly paid, amounting last year to six hundred thousand dollars. Its mode of applying dividends so as to accommodate them to the circumstances of the policy holders, is unequalled for the variety of the advantages it offers.

The Equitable has been enabled to deal thus liberally with its insured in consequence of the prosperity of its business and the thriftiness of its management. The percentage of its "total out go," compared with its cash premium receipts, was less in 1866 than that of any older Company. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any rival institution. It insures on a single life any sum from $250 to $25,000, and issues all the most desirable non-forfeiting policies. All its policies are, however, comparatively new, and it is therefore carrying but few impaired lives. Its percentage of losses, to amount at risk, which is much less than that of older Companies, establish this fact. The Equitable is, indeed, full of vitality and progressive strength, and is regarded as the most successful and—taking into consideration its age—the largest Life Insurance Company in the world.

NEW MOVEMENT IN LIFE INSURANCE.

We learn that some of the cash companies of this City have decided to adopt a uniform scale of premiums to take effect after the close of the present year, with a view to greater simplicity and uniformity in their business. These rates have been carefully deduced from American experience, and will be more accurate and satisfactory than those hitherto used which were based upon English statistics. The Mutual, Equitable, Washington, Widows and Orphans, Standard, and one or two other companies, have entered into this desirable arrangement. We learn also that these companies have decided to establish a system by which their rejections and other points relating to medical examinations and statistics will be made known to each other and mutual benefit derived. The contribution plan of dividend has been adopted by the companies named.

There are many other points in life insurance both theoretical and practical upon which companies conducted upon the general principles can unite for mutual aid and advantage, and set preserve their individual timeservers and independence in all other respects. Such we learn, is the leading idea governing the proposed union which cannot fail to be attended with favorable results.
